

Playful Portraiture

with Lyric Montgomery Kinard

Learn the secrets of making quilted portraits, from whimsical and cartoon-like silly selfie postcards to accurately proportioned quilted portraits. You will discover that it isn't nearly as hard as you imagined. Learn to choose your photo, draft a pattern, and create a fusible appliqué quilted portrait. At the end of class, Lyric will also demonstrate how she uses technology as a tool as you get seriously silly with your selfies.

Supplies:

- A small pile of scraps or just access to your stash: small-scale tone on tone prints, batiks, and neutrals, plus a few yarns and embellishments for hair
- Fat Quarters of: dark/med/light/lighter of one color (Lyric can help you choose fabrics during class)
- scrap of solid black fabric, scrap of solid white fabric (eyes, teeth, nostrils)
- Fabric scissors, paper scissors
- Glue sticks and wet wipes (to clean glue off hands)
- A couple yards of baking parchment or silicone press sheets
- 1 yard of regular weight Wonder-Under or your favorite fusible web, unless you've pre-fused your fabrics. (Please no Heat-n-Bond)
- Sketchbook or plain paper, pencil, eraser, sharpie
- Optional: mini-iron and pressing surface
- Light box/table and tracing paper (or - a tablet with a stylus and Adobe Illustrator IF you are comfortable with technology.)
- Note: you do not need to have photos ready, Lyric will supply files for you to print to practice on.
