

Road to California Souvenir Fabric Challenge

Up for a challenge? Time to get creative with our 25th anniversary fabric! Create your own quilt, bag or garment using over 50% of our anniversary fabric in the design! Think you got what it takes? Our unique fabric features images from our previous shows digitally printed and perfect for a challenge!

Rules:

Design Rules: Quilts should not be from a kit. Commercial patterns are acceptable so long as they follow the Road to California, Inc. statement on Copyright. Entry must be constructed using over 50% of the Road to California 25th Anniversary Souvenir fabric. Fabric can be purchased on www.road2ca.com

Entrant Requirements: Quilt-for-hire arrangements are acceptable for this challenge, given both parties are listed on the entry form. The person entering the quilt must have been a direct participant in creating the quilt. Entrants can submit an unlimited number of entries.

Photo/Image Permission: Entry into the exhibition automatically grants permission for the image of the quilt and/or all or part of the Artist's Statement about the quilt to be used in articles, ads, promotions, catalogs, books, magazines, websites (including any webcast coverage), blogs, CDs, news coverage, television, online and/or multimedia productions for and about this exhibit, Road to California, Inc. and its subsequent shows, or for and about quilting and developing creativity. The quilt artist retains copyright to the quilt and will be credited in any usage. No compensation will be granted to the entrant and/or copyright holder for use of the quilts image on any promotional products.

Completed submissions with photos must be received online by midnight, October 1, 2020. You will be notified no later than November 30, 2020, with jury results and, if accepted shipping instructions. If selected, the quilts will need to arrive in Upland, California no later than December 23, 2020.

Jury: A jury will review and select the works. The jury's decision is final and no comments, or reasons for acceptance or non-acceptance will be provided. Entries selected from digital images are subject to additional evaluation when the actual quilt arrives to Road. If the actual quilt is found to differ significantly from the digital image submitted for jurying, show management reserves the right to reject the entry and override the jurors' initial decision. The decision as to whether the difference is significant rests entirely with show management.

Selling Your Entry: You may choose to offer your entry for sale while on exhibition. If you do, 25% of the selling price will be retained by Road to California, Inc. Checks for sold entries will be issued within 30 days of the conclusion of the conference.

Please do not send your quilt without receiving and completing the shipping information. Although there is no cost to enter the challenge, there will be a charge for return shipping. We will not mark up the shipping rates – you will pay the exact rate we pay. No handling fees apply for challenges.

Insurance: Each piece will be insured for $500 from the time we receive your entry to the time we either return the quilt to you in person, or the carrier picks up your quilt. We highly recommend that you have private insurance (though a fine arts rider on your homeowners policy) to cover your quilt while it is in transit to and from Road to California. Insurance purchased through shipping carriers will only replace the value of the materials – not the value you have placed on your quilt. Please have a fine arts rider on your homeowners insurance policy.
