Director's Message

Over 30 years ago, my grandmother, Carolyn, had a vision. She was a traveling vendor, like the over 140 vendors at Road this year, and she kept seeing her customers from The Fabric Patch in Montclair, California at shows across the country. That's when it hit her – let's turn this quilt conference I bought in 1991 to a full-fledged show.

That first quilt show was quite special – she rented the ground floor wing of the Ontario Hilton (now the Ontario Airport Hotel). Each of the 14 vendors stood the beds on edge and moved all the furniture to the corner to make room for their merchandise. I know many of you were there for that first show!

My, how things have changed since then. Shortly after that first show, we moved into the new Ontario Convention Center. Starting in just one of the sections of the exhibit hall, Road quickly grew to take up the entire building. Staying true to the conference Grandma bought originally – our educational programs are some of the best you'll find.

Now, we are organizing both Road to California and the all-new Road to Virginia. We're not stopping there; starting in 2027, immediately before Road to California, we are launching CrossROADS – a credentialed trade event for quilting professionals.

CrossROADS is for the business side of quilting – whether you're a quilt shop owner, quilt teacher, or other industry professional, CrossROADS is unlike anything ever been done before in quilting. The best part – some of the exceptional talent that will be at CrossROADS will also come to Road to California – giving you a taste of the best of the best.

All of this wouldn't be possible without my family, our vendors, sponsors, and faculty members. Last but not least, our attendees – you're the entire reason we exist, and without you, we wouldn't be here. I thank you for the support of our vision and of Road – we exist for you, and because of you.

Many shows and promoters have come and gone from Southern California. Road to California is the only national show in California and the only promoter offering events to the thriving market in Southern California. We look forward to the next 30 years of offering once-in-a-lifetime experiences and providing only the best.

See you on the show floor.
Matt

Show This Page to Your Favorite Quilt or Sewing Business!

Road to California is doing a WHOLESALE tradeshow and we want your favorite shop or business in the sewing and quilt industry to join us!

This is a show only for registered businesses in the sewing and quilting world, but if that applies to you, you do NOT want to miss out. Here's why you want to join us:

Research Your New Vendors

Our goal is to put buyers and manufacturers together, and introducing shops to brands they have not heard of before. Our focus is on innovations in the industry.

Build Strong Relationships

Meeting your suppliers is one thing. Developing partnerships is another. We are working on ways to make building your vendor relationships better.

Designed to Grow Your Business

We are not just another vendor mall with unhelpful education tracks. We are focused on opening dialogues so retailers have a voice at the table.

Created for Today's Industry

The industry is going through tremendous change, and we should move with it. Focusing on how modern retail is conducted now, and not 40 years ago, will prepare you for the new landscape ahead.

Community Events

Networking and connecting with fellow retailers is a major part of why you go to a wholesale show. Create that sense of community with your peers at our many planned evening events.

Merchandising Secrets Revealed

From our "mock store" on our show floor to exhibitors bringing their "A" game, our wholesale show will give you merchandising ideas to take back to the store and implement right away.
